Holding a Place

Should you be unable to accept the offer once it has been made, Atlantic Technological University cannot hold a place for you on the programme. You will have to reapply when applications open for the next academic year.

Commencement of Programme

Programmes will commence subject to there being a viable enrolment on the course.

Commencement Date

The commencement date for your programme will be contained in the registration information that will be sent to all students in advance of commencement and registration.

The Institute reserves the right to cancel the offering of any programme.

Applicants who may have accepted a place on a programme that is subsequently cancelled, will be informed of same not later than two weeks prior to commencement.
